

Figma Prototype

Link to prototype

Category selection starts with the four main categories. Fields turn light blue while hovering and can be clicked.

After clicking the second screen shows the subcategories. The above category is shown at the top and is in a light blue color. When hovering over the above category it turns dark blue and clicking lead back to the main category screen.

After choosing a sub category the screen for a description and photo upload is shown.